Blyth Festival

Professional Theatre Featuring Original Canadian Plays

July 8 - August 14, 2009 – Mail Order Bride

During the Dog Show this play is performed on Wednesday & Thursday evenings at 8 pm

When Russell Teeter arrives at the old family homestead to itemize its contents for sale, he meets Harold, “a crazy coot” whose stories conjure the family ghosts. The cast of characters includes a mail-order bride, a traveling salesman, a hard-working farmer – all yearning for a better life where love is not unrequited. Originally produced in 1989, this powerful and bittersweet piece of theatre was a defining moment in the Blyth Festival’s history - a moment when the grassroots first stretched beyond the confines of our county lines to embrace the prairies and beyond. Former artistic director Katherine Kaszas returns to direct her revival of this treasured play
